

EQUITABLE SOCIAL RENT INTRODUCTORY TENANCY WHICH CONVERTS TO SECURE TENANCY FOR

Redditch Borough Council

Welcome to your new home

We want you to enjoy living in your new home and believe it is important that we make it clear from the start of your tenancy agreement what you can expect from us and in turn what we will expect from you during your tenancy agreement. This document sets out your rights and responsibilities and our responsibilities to you as landlord under your tenancy agreement.

What type of tenancy agreement do you have?

As you are under the age of 18 at the time of entering into this tenancy agreement, this tenancy agreement is an equitable tenancy. This is because in law someone under 18 cannot hold a legal interest in land. This tenancy agreement is not intended to grant a legal estate to you. The Trustee will hold the legal estate on trust for you until you are 18 years of age. Whilst you are under 18 years old, all references to you in this tenancy agreement shall operate as a reference to you as the equitable tenant. At all times you will be responsible for paying rent and any other charges due under the tenancy agreement and complying with the terms of the tenancy agreement.

We have given you an Introductory Tenancy under the Housing Act 1996 which converts to an Secure Tenancy under the Housing Act 1985 at the end of the introductory period. This means that for the first 12 months, (which may be extended) your tenancy will be a less secure form of tenure than a Secure Tenancy, which means that it is much easier for us to evict you. You also have fewer rights than a Secure Tenant.

Introductory Tenancy

The purpose of the Introductory Tenancy is:

- for you to get used to living in your home; and
- to enable us to decide whether you are able to sustain a long-term tenancy without breaching its terms; and
- for you to decide if you would like a long-term tenancy with us.

We aim to use the Introductory Tenancy in conjunction with a range of other measures to help us tackle breaches of tenancy such as:

- anti-social behaviour
- non-payment of rent
- damage to property

We expect you to look after your home and to treat your neighbours in the way you would like to be treated. You must pay your rent and any other charges due under the tenancy agreement on time and keep to the terms of this tenancy agreement. We believe that these are reasonable expectations.

What happens to my tenancy if I do not breach the terms and conditions?

If you conduct your tenancy agreement to our satisfaction and we do not notify you that we intend to end your tenancy agreement, then your tenancy will become a Secure Tenancy at the end of the qualifying period (which is normally 12 months but can be extended by us for a further period).

What happens to my tenancy if I breach the terms and conditions?

If you do not keep to the terms and conditions of this tenancy we may seek a possession order to evict you.

It is therefore important that you, your family and your visitors know exactly what is expected whilst you are our tenant. Please read your tenancy agreement carefully and ask us any questions if there is anything you don't understand. If you have any difficulties reading tell us and we will go through the terms with you.

Please also ensure that you keep this tenancy agreement in a safe place as you may wish to look at it if you have a question about it in the future.
